

Privacy Policy

The cryptocurrency was created by an advanced thinking of Satoshi Nakamoto which was decentralized, scattered, consensual, private and secure. The own concept of Nakamoto represents another high degree of civilization to some extent. However, in real life, the scattered and decentralized cryptocurrency enthusiasts and various cryptocurrency were mercilessly trampled on by one by one centralized and arrogant trade center, profit-oriented institutions, selfish and hostile external environment again and again. As a team that regard privacy as significant as life, it is time to address these long-standing drawbacks with our effort and solution.
